Travelers, Gypsies and Nomads

Caldcleugh Summer Arts Camp takes a cultural journey with some of the most fascinating nomadic tribes of Asia, Africa, Europe and the Middle East. Through music, dance, art and drama we learn all about the traditions of these world travelers.

We begin with the Kyrgyz who are known for their felt making traditions and simple melodic string instruments. We'll learn about their music and textile traditions influenced by China and Russia.

The Bedouins are an aristocratic nation of wanderers who turn the everyday task of grinding coffee into rhythms to dance to and transform wool from their goats, camels and sheep into embroidery.

The Romani, commonly called gypsies and believed to be descendants of India migrated to Scotland, Hungary and other European countries on foot. Their traveling performances of heroic tales are punctuated with the music of instruments they've picked up along the way like bagpipes, guitars and accordions.

Few tribes embody the essence of art and culture like the Wodaabe. For them, physical beauty is considered an important aspect of everyday life in the desert. Line, symmetry and color— basic elements in art— are valued physical attributes and it's the men who adorn themselves for the Geerewol, a courtship festival held each year.
